"Brief Coaching Training"

This is to certify that

David Hroch

has successfully completed all three parts of our Brief Coach Training (PURE, PLUS and PRO). This 125 hour Training programme meets the high standards of the International Coach Federation (ICF) for professional coaches and is accredited by the ICF (ACTP).

David Hroch has proven his capability to coach on a solid professional level consistently and effectively. In a rigorous final examination David Hroch has successfully demonstrated all eleven core competencies defined and required by the ICF and he has passed at a PCC level.

The training consisted of

- 12 days of training in solution-focused brief coaching incl. observed live coachings with real clients
- 5 days of mentoring and reflecting the own coaching practice
- 2 written documentations of coaching processes with own clients
- a final examination by an ICF certified master coach

We congratulate David Hroch on the successful completion of his training and wish him and his clients fruitful further development and learning.
